

28 Pacific Highway Blacksmiths, NSW

What a winner, brimming with value & power packed with the very best of old & ne

 Conditions of entry photo ID & a face mask is recommended **

Solid as rock, this wonderful wide set home boasts an easy care brick & tile exterior & a lovely airy welcoming open plan interior, yesteryear charm comes courtesy of decorative wide cornices a feature of the generous open lounge room, complimented by double doors, this living area opens out to a lovely old world veranda, where you can sit and while away the day catching cool sea breezes all afternoon long during the summer or basking in warm morning sun during the cold of winter, polished real timber floorboards throughout give that solid feel and link to the past, when everyone built homes to last, giving you that ring of confidence. Quite the grand old girl in her day, this residence offers genuine street appeal, with its great width & real street presence, inside the interior has been re-worked for a fresh look and feel, with contemporary touches that compliment todays way of living, like the addition of an ensuite, a modern open kitchen & renovated bathroom, the clean cr

Shanti Page

0414 840 699