A short walk to the beach means a lot to love!

How often do you come across a home where the location is that good, you don't even need a car? How often is that home within 450m of some of Australia's most picturesque coastline?

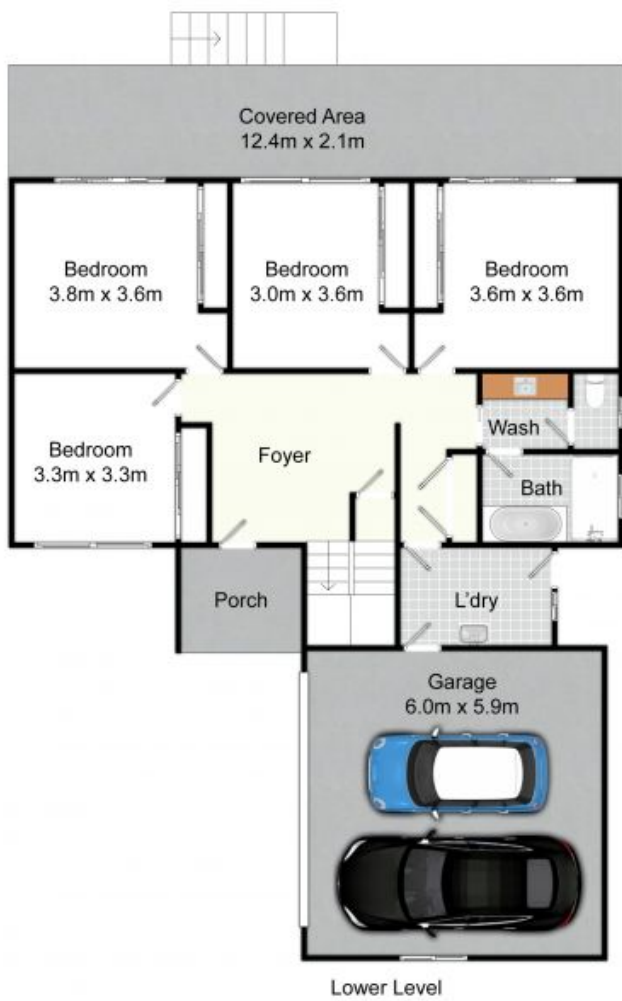

Presenting 4 Pacific Street, Caves Beach.

Up the carpeted stairs in the vaulted entry, you make your way to a cat-walk style landing ? providing separate access points to all your living space. Although accessed along this walkway, each space is also interconnected, allowing for seamless living and entertaining possibilities throughout the second floor. At the southern end, there is the u-shaped kitchen with electric stove, dishwasher hookup, walk-in pantry and deep breakfast bar. This room as well contains a flexible space that could serve as a in-formal dining space, a sitting room, or both. Following along is the formal dining room, followed by the generous liv
