A real standout feature of this home is its layout - perfectly split between the two levels, allowing for an abundance of living flexibility. The top floor is really the main living level, with your master bedroom, and open living, dining and kitchen spaces - flowing onto the pool deck. You also enjoy a separate living space, as well as great dining provisions. This layout is perfect for so many - entertainers; downsizers who still occasionally needs space; families; holiday makers - it truly does it all.
