Nestled at the rear of this boutique complex, this charming freestanding villa enjoys fantastic space and privacy. Its prized positioning lets this property take full advantage of the width of the lot, allowing for a great sized living space, as well as larger laundry with in-room linen.

At the heart of the home is the large open plan living/dining/kitchen space, with connection to the generous covered alfresco area. Cleverly appointed with carpet in the living space and tiles throughout the dining and kitchen, the space continues to feel intimate and functional despite its size. The living space also features a split-system, air conditioner to further add to the comfort factor.

Two great sized bedrooms both featuring built-in wardrobes, also benefit from the two bathrooms that the villa has. Ensuite to main, giving the second bedroom
