When it comes down to location, this one is definitely hard to beat, with genuine ocean and beach views, you just stroll across the road and you're short tracked to the stairs that lead down to the beach, right next to our famous Cave and straight on to patrolled and pristine sand and surf. Take the same track south and take the puppies to dog friendly Spoon Rocks Beach or for a good walk go all the way to Pinny Beach.

These days homes like this rarely even get to market, as they are snapped up by buyers already on our books, who are eager to secure their forever frontline position, we like to play fair though and give every buyer their chance to get involved but we don't know when the next one like this beauty will come up so please don't procrastinate, as these owners are most definitely on the move.
