

20 Flowers Drive Catherine Hill Bay NSW

2 1 4

Few places on the NSW East Coast promise such an authentic heritage township as seaside Catherine Hill Bay, traditional miners cottages still line the streets of this once vibrant country town, heritage listed, the streetscape and cottages themselves pay homage to a colourful past, rich in local history, so for those of us who crave something a little different, well away from high paced city living and nothing like life in the suburbs, Catherine Hill Bay's Coastal Country flavour makes a refreshing change and a truly wonderful destination to escape to, for a big dose of the sea and beach life, just 1 hour North of Sydney, it's the perfect place to retreat and relax, where National Park virtually floats down to your backdoor and it's a regular occurrence to see dolphins riding the waves. Once you've visited and stayed in Catho, you understand the weekend love affair Sydney-siders have with this wonderful place, you also appreciate how special it is to locals, keen to raise babies
