Most off market sales are about a quick, easy agent sale, sold to a frustrated buyer, who's not been willing to pay market price, but not Shanti's off market sales.

When we sell off market, it's still all about achieving the best outcome for our sellers and making dreams come true for buyers. We certainly achieved both here!

Extensively renovated, but not complete, with a very unwell owner and major timing issues.

Needing to sell to buy, but buying a home a long way off being built.

We knew a traditional marketing campaign would be too premature and too exhausting and stressful on our owners, so we gently worked on this sale.
