

Lot 205 Stern Court Murrays Beach NSW

Given the volume of this architectural, one off master piece and the volume of photo opportunities this incredible residence presents us, we have 2 ads running to cover as many elements of the property as we possibly can and even with 70 odd photos we cannot show you everything!

This ad shows off some of the amazing evening characteristics of the home and its amazing surrounds and outdoor living experiences, whilst also illustrating some of the stunning architectural and artistic elements of the residence, from the ridiculously high end commercial grade steel and double glazed walls of glass, through to the phenomenal natural materials, with rocks walls and boulder style vanity basins, giving you a taste for the quality of materials chosen and the striking execution and affect of blending the best of man made and the best of made by nature.
