What a magic place to call home, the setting is about as close as you can get to the sand and surf and with no immediate neighbour to the North East, a beautiful dedicated open space reserve very much adds to your beachside experience, promising picturesque and panoramic ocean views, the easy stroll to a vibrant village caf?, restaurant and shopping strip, mean you can ditch the cars and pretty much walk everywhere, from a stroll with the dog to Frenchmans fantastic surf, or awesome swimming with the kids and grandkids back on the patrolled southern cave end, the residents and guests only resort pool and the Caves Beach Bar and bistro are just seconds from home, yet youre well back from main roads and the traffic that goes with them, and youre far enough away to never hear the hotel, yet close enough to dash out for a beer or easily wander home after a few wines and dinner out. Offering a contemporary and distinctive look, this architect designed residence offers plenty of individuality and isnt a carbon clone of others in this friendly little boutique beachside estate, embracing an unobstructed North East view, both up and downstairs and a panoramic series of water views through the resort to the South East, you certainly cant forget how c
