

122 Park Avenue CAVES BEACH NSW

4 2 1

No amount of words or photos can really do this superbly renovated, residence justice, it is the epitome of affordable and contemporary beachside living and it well suits couples at either end of the spectrum, who love the beach, Lake, bush, fishing, boating, tennis, bowls and golf, from those starting out who want a place they can show off to their friends and proudly call home, right through to retirees too, with pre-schools through to high school and transport almost at the door. Perfect as is, there's still scope to modify and or extend the home down the track as your family grows, until then though, just enjoy not having to do a damn thing, except kick back and admire your castle and enjoy afternoons bar-side on the deck to end all decks!

- Beachy look lime wash timber floor boards feature throughout the crisp open living
