4 2 3

Promising a picture perfect sublime setting at the end of a quiet little cul-de-sac, surrounded by quality homes and wonderful neighbours, many of whom are retirees, the proximity to the waters edge and foreshore walking and cycling trails is fabulous, just like the residence itself, here superb design, function and feel, all beautifully combine to create an all on 1 level amazing indoor and outdoor living experience that is uniquely designed and personalised around the block it sits on, where core Murrays Beach values have been top of mind, with a home that works around the trees and is conscious of its eco footprint and environmental impact. Local materials and local trades people have been carefully sourced and well researched with the end result being an inclusive and inviting creative space, where the senses are indulged at every opportunity and every turn feels like a new adventure, living here day to day, or visiting is as relaxed as it is exciting, with simplicity,
