When your owners have lived in the same place for over 40 years, it really tells you something, it says they have loved every minute being there and it lets you know the property has been able to grow with them, but there comes a day when no matter how much you love a home, the need to down size and plan ahead becomes reality and that day is today, our owners have just signed up for a beautiful new retirement villa and as much as they are very emotional about the big move and leaving what has been home for so long, they are ready and willing to welcome new owners to their home sweet home and will sell! Just a stroll to Pelicans sandy foreshore beach, brand new boat ramp and Blacksmiths village shopping strip, you cant beat the location, but the property itself is every bit as impressive with a generous layout offering front and rear open style living that flows out to the best North facing aspect backyard that money can buy, fully established lawns, gardens and covered entertainment areas will be a haven for kids, grandkids and pets with outdoor living in bucket loads making parties a cinch, the 4 car garage is complete with a kitchenette, shower and t
