

3 Pacific Street CAVES BEACH, NSW

In the Caves Beach sweet spot seconds from the Surf Club - pristine inside & out

Picture perfect, you will not find lawns and gardens more lush and inviting than these, ready to feature on Better Homes and Gardens, if you want to feel like youre walking on soft green pillows and you cant wait to get outside and roll around on your gorgeous new lawn with the kids, the grandkids or the puppies, they simply dont come better, greener or more lush than these and then theres the interior to look forward to with white washed timber floorboards flowing through the open living and classic white stone tops kitchen, an easy, breezy, beach house feel is immediately apparent and particularly appealing, dressed with classic white plantation shutters and bathed in delicious natural light, you immediately feel at home here, with a really welcoming vibe resonating throughout the property. Set in one of Caves Beach prized locations, elevated yet on the flat, families, young and old, can easily get around, with patrolled sand and surf just seconds away through the park, and with cafes, shops, restaurants, hotel and lovely pre-schools through to high school just an easy stroll away, families, retirees and those after a weekend close to the beach.
