Minty fresh, this stand out property will have your taste buds tingling in anticipation, there's no sad or sulky dull looking exterior in sight here, loud and proud, this cottage is a shining light and a breath of fresh air, professionally painted from tip to toe, the outside will look crisp and chirpy for many years ahead, but don't worry, inside is a much calmer, toned down affair, with a light, bright and airy, mostly white, lovely to live in relaxing interior. Indoor and outdoor living is easy and breezy with a great sunny North rear aspect drenching your entertaining area in winter sun and cooling things down on hot summer days, thanks to our much loved traditional Nor Easter blowing off the ocean. A car enthusiast's dream property, the garaging just goes forever with close circuit TV surveillance to protect the one or ones you love the most - YOUR PROJECT CAR! At least here there is plenty of room for the normal car to be garaged and the stuff you need kept out of the weather too,
