Sold in 1 Day for Way Over Expectations, Completely original interior, Small bl

Sold Pre-Market for Well Over Valuation! A deceased estate in a completely original condition, no sexy polished timber floor boards, no two storey brick with a big family friendly backyard, but beautiful in the eyes of our very happy buyers who will turn this ugly duckling into a stunning swan.

This property is a great start in a great location, but let's face it - she needs work. That late 50s kitchen needs to go, and so do a few walls. The scary carpet has to hit the skip bin soon.

- * A sun-drenched front porch makes a great place to sit
- * Completely original condition
- * Original Kitchen and Bathrooms
